John Coburn of Indiana, captured at the battle of Spring Hill, Tenn., and confined in Libby prison for several months. He continued in active ser-vice after his release with his regiment in the campaign of the army of the Cumberland. Mr. Lincoln was for several years employed in the internal revenue service. In 1875 he was commissioned by President Grant as consul to Canton, China, which office he filled until 1881, when he returned to his home in Michigan. In 1883 he opened a law office in Washington. He is well and favorably known in G.A.R. circles, having served for two years as commander of the famous Kit Carson post, and last year as commander of the department of the Potomac. The appointment of Col. Lincoln was made by the President after consultation with Gen. Raum, who has known the appointee for some years. Gen. Col. Lincoln was at the Interior department early this morning, and, having taken the oath, he walked over to the pension office, where he called on the commissioner, and was then introduced to Gen. Bartlett. The latter remained for some time in the room and gave his successor suggestions in regard to the duties of the place. Under the reassignment of the duties of the two deputies a great deal of important business devolves upon the second deputy, and as Col. PAY OF THE ARMY. The Annual Report of Paymaster Gen-

The annual report of Paymaster General Rochester to the Secretary of War shows that the total disbursements during the past fiscal year amounted to $14.786,620.91, a net increase of $324,917.92 over the previous year. This increase is due to a large increase in the number of discharged men-997 more than during the previous year. To the forty-one posts paid monthly thirty-one posts have been added, leaving sixty-three posts to which the system of monthly payments has not been extended. A further extension of this system cannot be made without an increase in the number of paymasters.

CASUALTIES. one officer by death, Maj. Henry Clayton, two by retirement and before the close of the year another officer will be retired. These casualties will reduce the force to thirty-nine officers, of whom only thirty-five, including the assistant and deputy paymasters general will be available for active disbursing duty.

THE ROBBERY OF MAJOR WHAM. "The risk to which officers of this department are especially subjected," says Gen. Rochester, "has again been emphasized by the robbery of Maj. J. W. Wham. This officer, while en route to pay the troops at Fort Thomas, Ariz., accompanied with an escort of eleven men, his clerk, servant and a sergeant. was attacked May 11, 1889, by a band of robbers and driven from the ambulance containing his money chest, which they rifled and escaped with the contents. Maj. Wham reports the amount stolen as $28.345.10 Several of the supposed robbers have since been captured and are held by the civil authorities for trial. This office has not been advised of the recovery of any portion of the stolen funds.

The amount appropriated for payment of mileage to officers for the last fiscal year was $150,000, with the proviso that the transportation furnished by the quartermaster's department to officers traveling without troops shall be limited to transportation in kind, over free roads, over bond-aided Pacific roads, and by conveyance belonging to that department, always excepting sleeping and parlor car ac-commodations. By this new legislation the cost of transportation of officers other than by the routes excepted was cast upon the pay-master's department. The appropriation was expended before the close of the fiscal year, leaving a large number of claims unprovided for, amounting at present to $9,323.66.

During the year there were 270 stoppages made against officers, amounting to $52,762.27.

THE AMOUNT DEPOSITED BY ENLISTED MEN crease from the amount deposited during the previous year. The decrease may be due to the fact that owing to the more frequent pay-ments the enlisted men who usually made de-posits of small amounts do not feel inclined on receipt of only half the sum to deposit so large a proportion of it. To encourage these men and to give them every opportunity to save their money it is recommended that the mini-

THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS. Opening Exercises Today at Baltimore Amid Great Enthusiasm.

BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 11 .- The Catholic congress began its sessions this morning. The delegates to the number of about 1,200 assisted at a solemn pontifical mass in the morning, celebrated by Archbishop Corrigan of New York. The sermon was preached by Archbishop Gross of Oregon. He welcomed the delegates and gave a brief outline of the history of the church in America for the past hundred years. At the conclusion of the sermon the delegates marched to the Concordia opera house. The congress was called to order at 11:15 a.m. by Wm. J. Onahan of Chicago. Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul prayed that the light of the Holy Spirit would be shed upon the deliberations of the congress.

MESSAGE FROM THE POPE. Mr. Onahan read a message from the pope, whose name was greeted with tumultuous applause. The message was sent in response to one sent two days ago. It reads: "Having made known to the holy father the expressions of devotion conveyed to him on the part of the Catholic congress to be held in Baltimore his holiness graciously bids me to say that he most affectionately imparts his blessing to all the members.

(Signed) M. CARD. RAMPOLLA."

Mr. Onahan then welcomed the delegates of foreign countries as well as those of the United States, and he hoped that in 1892 they would have the pleasure of welcoming them to an international congress.

DISTINGUISHED DELEGATES. Among those on the stage were Bishops Virtue of England, Foley of Detroit and Father Heyburne of New Mexico and many other prelates and priests. Ex-Gov. Jno. Lee Carroll of Maryland was then elected temporary chairman and the following secretaries were appointed: Geo. E. Hamilton of Georgetown college, J. F. Edwards of Notre Dame university, Indiana; Dr. Wm. S. McDonald of Boston college, J. P. Fisher of the Immaculate Conception college, lege and John M. Duffy of Chicago. A long list of vice presidents from each state was also

In taking the chair Gov. Carroll said that in Maryland the American church was practically founded and it was proper that the laymen should meet upon this hallowed ground and renew their allegiance to the doctrines they profess and show to their fellow countrymen government. The congress assembled with the sanction of the hierarchy and by virtue of the authority of the Congress of the United States. He cited the cases of Archbishop Carroll, Chief Justice Taney and Gen. Sheridan to show that the American Catholic has ever been foremost in the councils and on the battlefield. But it was not the individual alone who always emphasized his devotion to his country.

THE CHURCH FOR LAW AND ORDER. The church never failed to throw her influence in the scale of law and order. Socialism would today have a stronger footing in Europe and America had it not been checked by the holy see. And yet while maintaining respect for established order and upholding the rights of sovereign power she is always ready to lavish tenderness and sympathy upon the suffering masses. He then referred to the action of Cardinal Gibbons in appearing before the propa-ganda in behalf of the Knights of Labor. He reminded Catholics that the time had come reminded Catholics that the time had come when they rejoice at the opportunity of meeting each other upon common ground and of exchanging views upon subjects of vital importance. They had two great purposes at heart, the glory and progress of the Catholic church and the continued prosperity of the American people. [Great applause.]

While the committee on organization was out the delegates were entertiated by Denial

Dougherty of New York, Hon. Honore Mercier, premier of Quebec, and Rev. James Nugent of Liverpool, England. Mr. Dougherty said that the Roman Catholics of America had recently submitted to wrongs and injustices in manifold shapes and from time immemorial. They were proscribed at the ballot-box. The highest honors of the republic are denied them by pre-judice. The Catholics assert they are pre-eminently American and that there would be no America had it not been for Catholics. He went on to trace the work of Catholics down from the discovery by Columbus, who was a

Cardinals Gibbons and Tascherau and Archbishop Satolli then came into the hall amid great applause. Cardinal Gibbons, being introduced, welcomed the delegates to Baltimore. He said that at first he was opposed to a lay congress at this time, because he feared it might conflict with the celebration of the centennial of the hierarchy, but he consented at the solicitation of his friends, particularly his irrepressible friends. He hoped that the congress will result in a closer union between clergy and people. The organization will be-come a power in this land, he said, and it will build up and edify the people. On motion the temporary officers were made permanent, and the convention took a recess of twenty minutes.

GIL. PIERCE FRIGHTENED. He Thinks That Gov. Ordway Has Put Up a Deal to Beat Him.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11 .- A Tribune special from Fargo, N.D., says ex-Gov. Pierce's friends are getting alarmed over the senatorial outlook. Some of the candidates are getting desperate and there is talk that Ordway and Johnson have engineered a combination that looks extremely dangerous. There are several other men in the field also, who are possibly in a position to throw a victory to most anybody who can do something in return in the way of appointing officers. The legislature will as-semble at Bismarck, November 19.

New York, Nov. 11 .- It is rumored Modjeska will withdraw from Booth's company and ask for an accounting and release. Her reason is said to be what she terms Booth's ungentlemanly and unchivalrous conduct toward her.
Mr. Booth last night refused to be interviewed, but said: "Mme, Modjeska and I are old enough to have grandchildren. My lovemaking days off the stage are over."
Modjeska is under contract to Messrs. Booth and Barrett for the season. She was first engaged to star under the management of Zim-mermann & Nixon of Philadelphia, but later on changed her mind, and Mr. Barrett succeeded in buying the contract from the Philadelphia managers after a great deal of trouble. He is said to have paid $25,000 for the privilege of starring Mme. Modjeska jointly with Mr. Booth. If Mme. Modjeska succeeds in having her contract annulled Mr. Barrett will be the heaviest loser. He pays Mme. Modjeska a salary of $1.500 a week and Mr. Booth twice as much. Owing to these enormous expenses the com-pany has not been able to make any money as

Mme. Modjeska is alleged to have repeatedly urged Mr. Booth to release her from her contract, as she found their relations unbearable after his conduct toward her.

He went to Ireland in 1866 to lead the insurrection, was arrested, tried and sentenced to be "hanged, drawn and quartered." but the morning of his death day his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. In 1871 he was released on condition that he would for twenty years leave Ireland. In politics Bourke was connected with the New York County democracy. In 1875 he ran for Congress in the first district and was defeated by Nicholas Muller. For twelve years he was clerk in the bureau of repairs and supplies. When Tammany came into power he lost his position and for the last year he had not been doing anything. At the time of his death he was a member of most of the Irish national organizations. SCICIDE.

CARRYING WAR INTO AFRICA. The Natives Up in Arms Against the Europeans-Other Foreign Topics.

LONDON. Nov. 11.-Since the news arrived of the homeward march of Stanley with Emin Pasha and his party and of the reported disaster to Dr. Peters' relief expedition the British East African company has been rapidly picking up all the best available men to send out to protect its territories from raids by the rebellious natives. Capt. Lugard, whose name is well known in connection with the Lake Nyassa troubles, and Mr. George S. Mackenzie, with 150 men, left for Mombassa this week. The East African company antici-pates heavy work to hold its territory against the Arabs. Latest news indicates that all the native elements are up in arms and are for the mement brethren in a common cause to drive out the detested foreigners, This serious up-rising on the part of the natives is attributed to Capt. Wisman's attempt to increase the sphere of German influence by exterminating the people.

was carried over and first prices were generally small fractions lower than Saturday's closing figures, while further losses were sustained over the entire list in the early dealings. These losses were generally confined to small fractions, but Lakawanna declined 1/2 and Atchison 1/3. The weakest point in the list, however, was Tennessee coal, whose late sharp advances made it particularly vulnerable and it dropped from 65 to 621/2. The trusts were strong, cotton oil in particular, which rose from 321/2 at the opening to 331/2, though it was surpassed by sugar with a gain of 11/2 per cent. After 10:30 the decline was checked and the pressure being removed a full recovery was had in some cases, Atchison being specially prominent among the active stocks, while Tennessee coal advanced 11/2 to 641/2. The market showed no strength, however, and while the trading became quiet prices receded slightly again, and at 11 o'clock the market was only fairly active and steady at a shade under the opening prices in most stocks.

The Snow Blockade in New Mexico Raised-Great Loss of Beef.

THE BLIZZARD.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 11 .- The snow blockade on the Denver, Texas and Fort Worth railway, running due south from this point, has been raised, and Saturday evening, for the first time in eight days, a through train arrived from the south. The situation along the line was becoming desperate. Entire towns had run short of supplies, Ranches were completely out of stores. Stockmen say they have never experienced such a blizzard on the southern ranges.

Near Folsom 50,000 sheep were on the drive to the railway for shipment to Nebraska and Kausas feeders. They were probably lost. The fall of snow has averaged over three feet on the level, while the force of the wind has piled the snow into huge drifts as high as 15 and 20 feet. Hardy range cattle were unable to face the terrible blasts or rustle for grass or water. The loss of beef is simply enormous.

Advices from nearest points continue to tell of great loss of life among shepherds and cowboys, who remained faithful to their flocks and died at their posts of duty.

A special from Raton, N.M., states that losses on cattle alone will aggregate 10,000 head and result in the ruin of several companies, R. G. Head, manager of the Head Ranch and Cattle company, left Denver Tuesday morning with coffins for three of the herders who perished the first day of the blizzard. The republican majority is so small that every effort will be brought to bear for the defeat of Senator Allison and the enactment of a high license law. Whether either of these can be accomplished remains to be seen. Already the democrats are casting about for a suitable candidate for the United States Senate for whom a few republicans can be induced to vote. Flushed with their victory in the election of a governor they naturally turn to their successful candidate as the most available man, but there is a stumbling block in the way in the shape of the probable defeat of their candidate for lieutenant governor, in which event to take Mr. Boies out of the governor's chair would be to put a republican lieutenant governor

THE LIQUOR QUESTION. There seems to be little doubt now that the liquor law would be changed somewhat, even to the extent of the enactment of a high license law. This is not only the desire of the democratic party, but seems to be the will of the majority of the people as expressed at the polls last Tuesday. Already the republican leaders like Congressmen Henderson and Reed and republican papers like the Sioux City Journal have not hesitated to say that prohibition was the prime cause of republican defeat and to express a belief that a high license law will be enacted this winter. The republican party, as a party, has never espoused the prohibition cause, but has always stood in the attitude of carrying out the will of the people. Now it seems to be the feeling of the people that they have had enough of extreme prohibition and are willing to return to high license. It will be an easy matter for enough republicans in the legislature to combine with the democrats and give them the change demanded.
